

Accessibility in California

An Overview Presented by
Courtney Tossounian, La Canada Design Group

* Accessibility in California is complex and touches every public sphere. In addition, the Federal Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) adds another layer of responsibility to those with decision making power and responsible control of public areas. This short seminar will help with the big picture of accessibility, what is important to provide, and how to find the resources you need.

Hosted by

Tuesday, March 19
11:30 a.m.

Claim Jumper at the Antelope Valley Mall
1247 W. Ave P, Palmdale 93551

Lunch $20

RSVP with lunch selection by Tuesday, March 12th to cvanderhyde@cityoflancasterca.org

General Membership Meeting for APWA High Desert Branch